THE SPECTACULAR HISTORIC MANOR

The southern manor in the hills of Briarcliff, NY, The Briarcliff Manor, overlooking a breathtaking view of the Hudson River & Palisades has an exciting story to tell.

Built in 1902 and originally the Haymount Estate, Wall Street Financier and Lawyer/General Counsel for the American Tobacco Company, Williamson Whitehead Fuller and his wife Annie Staples of Greensboro called the Haymount home for a number of years. The Haymount was styled after the grand southern plantations of the late 1800s boasting southern charm and grandeur. The Fuller family called Haymount home until Fuller's death in the early 30s.

The Manor is rumored to have hosted some of the area's most interesting characters during the Prohibition era as a speakeasy. Its convenient location allowed easy access to shipments of outlawed goods.

In her most famous role yet, the manor proudly served as inspiration for producers of the American Classic Gone With the Wind as they searched for old south refinement in the north. The manor can be seen in all of her antebellum glory as the iconic Tara Estate in the 1939 film.

In the early half of the 1940s, the manor served as home to a new family - both human and animal. The Holland Classical Circus called the manor home before leaving after the end of World War II in 1945. During this time, one of the manor's wings was burnt down in a fire. Later on, the manor's other wing would be torn down in order to retain the symmetrical appearance that southern plantations are famous for.

In the 1950s Robert and Pauline Morin turned the Haymount Estate into a riding stable called The Walk, Trot, and Canter Club.

From the 1970s to the early 2000s, the Haymount Estate became the Maison Lafitte, a French Restaurant owned and operated by Giovanni Susech until it eventually fell into disrepair.

In May 2015, The Haymount House fell into the hands of renowned Westchester caterers, Perry & Vincenza DiNapoli's (of the DiNapoli Restaurant Group), which they renamed The Briarcliff Manor. After being restored to her original splendor, the manor now provides an extraordinary backdrop for private celebrations of all kinds - weddings, fundraising events, and corporate meetings.

"Perry and the rest of the staff are absolutely wonderful and know how to run a wedding. I had the perfect wedding and it's hard to give any feedback other than to trust the knowledge of the event planning team."

"We planned our wedding in just over 2 months and The Briarcliff Manor was there every step to help us and accommodate our crazy families. Perry, Vincenza and staff there are simply amazing! They took care of every detail the day of the wedding and we did not have to worry about anything. The bar area was perfect for our cocktail reception and the bridal suite was great for my sisters and I to get away from everyone for a few quiet moments. The food was absolutely AMAZING and I couldn't have asked for a more beautiful location for our pictures!"

"The owners are wonderful as is the staff, they take pride in their establishment and go the extra mile to make sure your event is just as you want. The Briarcliff Manor has an old world sophisticated feel, it's impeccable in every aspect. Our wedding ceremony took place in front of the fireplace, our table decor was stunning, the Bridal suite is gorgeous, the staff was extremely accommodating. Our guests could not stop raving about the beauty and history of the building itself, it truly is a fabulous venue to host any special event. Thank you for making our Wedding Day incredibly memorable!"

"I cannot express enough how happy my husband and I are with our choice of venue. The Briarcliff Manor really made our dream wedding come true. From the first stages of planning, to the rehearsal dinner, and finally to the wedding day, everything ran to perfection. Perry, Vincenza, Valerie, and Jamie were always available to answer any questions and were more than accommodating with everything. This incredible team, as well as the chefs, waitstaff, and bartenders, made our special day and night beyond perfect. The food was amazing (our guests could not stop talking about how delicious everything was), the backyard and view of the river was picturesque for our ceremony, and the manor itself was just so elegant and beautiful ... Everyone at The Briarcliff Manor makes you feel like a part of their family. They really made our wedding day unforgettable. You can sense that they are personally invested in making your experience perfect and stress free. They all love what they do and it shows!"
